

TALK OF GILROY AS LEADER.

TAMMANY MEN BELIEVE THAT MR. CROKER MEANS TO RETIRE.

The Executive Committee Meeting, Tuesday, May 2, at the Tammany Hall, was a very important one. It was held at the suggestion of Mr. Croker, who has been the leader of the party for many years. The committee discussed the future of the party and the possibility of Mr. Croker's retirement. It was decided that Mr. Croker should remain in the party for a few more years, but that he should not be the leader. The committee also discussed the possibility of Mr. Gilroy becoming the leader. It was decided that Mr. Gilroy should be considered for the position, but that he should not be elected until after the next election.

Mr. Croker is going to resign that Chairmanship, said he, of course, will take him out of the Executive Committee, but I believe that he will still be a follower and not a leader. If he should remain in the Executive Committee he would be a follower and not a leader. The committee also discussed the possibility of Mr. Gilroy becoming the leader. It was decided that Mr. Gilroy should be considered for the position, but that he should not be elected until after the next election.

Mr. Croker came down from Tammany Hall shortly after noon yesterday to attend to his private business, as one of the partners of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. He came down on the Third Avenue elevated railroad and walked across City Park. He was seen by many people, but he did not stop to talk to any of them. ## A MANIA FOR BITING PEOPLE.

Man-eater Hughes of Williamsburg at His Own Risk.

Joseph Hughes, aged 40, called "Man-eater" Hughes on account of his mania for biting people when he is drunk, was released from the Kings county penitentiary on Monday after serving a year for biting an Italian on the left arm. Hughes is tall and dignified, and from boyhood has lived in North Sixth street, Williamsburg. He was released from the penitentiary on Monday after serving a year for biting an Italian on the left arm.

When he was 20 years old he got into the bit for habit and it never left him. One day, without any provocation, he bit a boy's leg. For this he served a term in jail. About five years ago he got into a quarrel with a man and bit him on the arm. He was released from the penitentiary on Monday after serving a year for biting an Italian on the left arm.

COLLUDING WITH GREEN GOODS MEN.

Hudson County's Grand Jury Presentment Against the Western Union.

The Hudson county Grand Jury has been engaged for several days in investigating the green goods business, and the manner in which the wiremen manage to receive communications from their victims. The jury arrived at the conclusion that the Western Union Telegraph Company was in practical collusion with the wiremen, and made a presentment to the court yesterday to that effect. The presentment was received by Judge Hudson in the absence of Justice Lippincott. It was in part as follows:

"We deem it our duty, as members of the Grand Jury, to call the attention of the Court and the public to the attitude maintained by the Western Union Telegraph Company towards its employees in this city, toward that particular form of fraud known as the 'green goods' business. We have made a thorough investigation of the method of conducting that business, as far as the Hudson county is concerned, and we find a state of facts which, while insidious, in the present condition of the law to sustain indictments, are not, in our opinion, deserving of a severe and exemplary punishment."

BRITISH CABINET SHAKY.

THE LIBERALS ALARMED BY ROBERTS' WINNING MAJORITY.

It is held the Budget Bill Can Escape Defeat by a Majority of Only Ten—The Tories Say that Disunion Is Coming. London, May 5.—The Sun, in an article under the caption "Is the Crash Coming?" expresses the opinion of the writer, T. F. O'Connor, M. P., that the vote in the House of Commons on last Friday on Sir Edward Clarke's amendment to the Registration Bill—262 to 278—Government majority of fourteen, was a prelude to a still narrower majority, possibly ten, in the vote on the second reading of the budget on next Thursday. Such a majority, the Sun asserts, would make it impossible for the Government to carry out the rest of its programme.

The Chronicle expresses fear that the Government is approaching the stage beyond which it will be impossible to go, and advises the immediate calling of a meeting of its supporters to consider the situation. The Chronicle also expresses fear that the Government is approaching the stage beyond which it will be impossible to go, and advises the immediate calling of a meeting of its supporters to consider the situation.

The other afternoon papers comment on the situation in a similar strain, though in somewhat milder language. The Sun also says that the narrowness of the Liberal majority in the House of Commons is a serious matter, and that the Government is in a precarious position.

The Chronicle appeals to the Liberals to concentrate their energies and rally round the Government. The Chronicle also expresses fear that the Government is approaching the stage beyond which it will be impossible to go, and advises the immediate calling of a meeting of its supporters to consider the situation.

THE FRENCH MINISTRY WINS.

Sustained by the Chamber on the Question of Prosecuting Toussaint.

Paris, May 5.—The Chamber of Deputies was crowded with members and visitors to-day when M. Millerand read the report of the committee, of which he is chairman, to which was referred the matter of prosecuting Toussaint, a Socialist Deputy for the Eleventh arrondissement of Paris, for insulting the police on the occasion of the strike of the workmen in the Triangulaire works. The report was unfavorable to the prosecution of Toussaint.

When the reading of the report was finished M. Millerand, who is chairman of the committee, made a speech in support of the report. He declared that he was in favor of prosecuting Toussaint, and that he was in favor of prosecuting Toussaint.

THE BROOKLYN ANTIS MEET.

MRS. WARDWELL THINKS WOMEN WOULD GAIN NOTHING BY VOTING.

The anti-Suffragists of Brooklyn gathered yesterday morning at a pretty new residence, 300 St. Mark avenue, for a meeting. Mrs. F. H. Wardwell, who is a new anti-Suffragist recruit, about one hundred and fifty women were present, among whom was Miss Remond Tynte, an English Suffragist. Mrs. Tynte had attended the meeting for the purpose of playing the anti with questions, but she was disappointed, as Mrs. Lyman Abbott, who presided, concluded that the hour was too short for the exchange of questions.

Mrs. Abbott introduced Mrs. Wardwell as the leading speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Wardwell said in opening: "Of course I have met women who have argued the question, but when I say to one of them, 'Why do you want to vote?' she replies, 'Oh, I don't want to vote myself, but, and then she generally branches off about the old State laws in Rhode Island, or the condition of married women in Louisiana. Sometimes they say they are opposed to the liquor traffic, and then they say they are in favor of it, and I have signed a protest. I do really and truly protest with all my heart and soul. I want to vote, and I don't see how I can be forced to vote.'"

The objection to giving women the suffrage, continued Mrs. Wardwell, is founded on the fact that women are not equal to men. They are not equal physically, they are not equal mentally, and they are not equal socially. They are not equal to men in any way, and they are not equal to men in any way.
